Sports Medicine Associates of South Florida P.A.

I understand that I am responsible for the cost of the professional medical services provided to me by Sports Medicine Associates of South Florida, P.A. ("Sports Medicine") regardless of the availability of certain other sources of payment, including insurance benefits and pending claims I may have against third parties who may be responsible for my medical condition. I elect to pay for the professional services provided by Sports Medicine as follows:

|---|--|
| Check on of these if this is a legal case: <input type="checkbox"/> I have a Third Part Claim (defined below) and intend to seek compensation from a third party. I have engaged an attorney and will sign, with my attorney, a Letter of Protection in favor of Sports Medicine. If PIP insurance is available a claim may be submitted to the applicable PIP insurance company. I will not use any health insurance or Medicare benefits. I understand my charges may exceed the benefits available from my PIP insurance, and I am responsible for payment of all charges to the fullest extent. <input type="checkbox"/> Self-Pay. I will be personally responsible for all charges by Sports Medicine. | Check one of these if this is NOT a legal case: <input type="checkbox"/> I intend to use available health insurance benefits, as applicable, subject to coordination of benefits rules applicable to these policies and benefit programs. <input type="checkbox"/> I intent to use any available PIP benefits. Once exhausted, I will personally be responsible for all remaining balances. <input type="checkbox"/> Self-pay. I will be personally responsible for all charges by Sports Medicine. |

Accordingly, in consideration for the medical services rendered by Sports Medicine and its physician, I agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Guarantee of Payment: I guarantee prompt payment of all such services not otherwise paid by insurance or any third party. Payment for any services provided to me is not contingent upon the receipt of any award of damages or payment upon any claim I may make against a third party.
2. Health or PIP Insurance: If I am entitled to and intend to utilize health insurance, Medicare, or PIP Insurance coverage for the services rendered to me by Sports Medicine, I understand that coinsurance and deductible amounts are due and payable at the time that professional services are rendered. Upon the exhaustion of the above benefits, I understand that I am responsible for all charges in excess of such exhausted benefits to the extent permitted by law, which charges, together with charges for services which are not covered shall be payable at the time that professional services are rendered. I acknowledge that Sports Medicine's charges may exceed the benefits available from my PIP and health insurance policies and that I am responsible for the payment of such charges to the fullest extent permitted by law.
3. Authorization: I hereby authorize any and all assigned insurance companies to pay the amount due in any pending claims directly to Sports Medicine. I understand that, unless otherwise required by law, any amounts not covered or not paid by my insurance policy or any third party payer, including charges for services which are not covered benefits under my insurance policy, are my personal responsibility. If any action at law or in equity is brought to enforce this agreement, Sports Medicine and/or treating physicians shall be entitled to recover attorney's fees, court costs, and any other costs of collection incurred. Sports Medicine will not balance bill where prohibited by law.
4. Third Party Claims: If I seek, or intend to seek, the recovery of monetary damages in connection with an accident or other tort claim from a third party ("third Party Claim"), I must provide a Letter of Protection, subject to the approval of Sports Medicine, that is duly signed by me and my legal counsel ("LOP"). According to the LOP, sports Medicine will accept payment of professional fees upon settlement or final judgement in my case. I understand that, if there is no settlement, or if I otherwise receive no payment in consideration of my Third Part Claim I am fully responsible for the professional fees charged by Sports Medicine, which fees shall be due and payable immediately upon the earlier to occur of the following: (1) final judgement against me or dismissal of my Third Party Claim, or (2) the abandonment of my Third Part Claim by me or my legal counsel.
5. No Insurance Benefits: If I have no insurance and there is no third party payer available to pay for Sports Medicine's professional services. I understand that payment is due at the time professional services are rendered. I CERTIFY THAT THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS DOCUMENT HAS BEEN READ BY OR EXPLAINED TO ME AND THAT I UNDERSTAND THIS INFORMATION. NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Protected health information (PHI), about you, is maintained as a written and/or electronic record of your contacts or visits for healthcare services with our practice. Specifically, PHI is information about you, including demographic information (i.e., name, address, phone, etc.), that may identify you and relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health condition and related healthcare services.

Our practice is required to follow specific rules on maintaining the confidentiality of your PHI, using your information, and disclosing or sharing this information with other healthcare professionals involved in your care and treatment. This Notice describes your rights to access and control your PHI. It also describes how we follow applicable rules and use and disclose your PHI to provide your treatment, obtain payment for services you receive, manage our healthcare operations and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law.

Your Rights Under The Privacy Rule

Following is a statement of your rights, under the Privacy Rule, in reference to your PHI. Please feel free to discuss any questions with our staff.

You have the right to receive, and we are required to provide you with, a copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices

We are required to follow the terms of this notice. We reserve the right to change the terms of our notice, at any time. Upon your request, we will provide you with a revised Notice of Privacy Practices if you call our office and request that a revised copy be sent to you in the mail or ask for one at the time of your next appointment. The Notice will also be posted in a conspicuous location within the practice, and if such is maintained by the practice, on its web site.

You have the right to authorize other use and disclosure

This means you have the right to authorize any use or disclosure of PHI that is not specified within this notice. For example, we would need your written authorization to use or disclose your PHI for marketing purposes, for most uses or disclosures of psychotherapy notes, or if we intended to sell your PHI. You may revoke an authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your healthcare provider, or our practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

You have the right to request an alternative means of confidential communication

This means you have the right to ask us to contact you about medical matters using an alternative method (i.e., email, telephone, text messaging), and to a destination (i.e., cell phone number, alternative address, etc.) designated by you. You must inform us in writing, using a form provided by our practice, how you wish to be contacted if other than the address/phone number that we have on file. We will follow all reasonable requests.

You have the right to inspect and copy your PHI

This means you may inspect, and obtain a copy of your complete health record. If your health record is maintained electronically, you will also have the right to request a copy in electronic format. We have the right to charge a reasonable fee for paper or electronic copies as established by professional, state, or federal guidelines.

You have the right to request a restriction of your PHI

This means you may ask us, in writing, not to use or disclose any part of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. If we agree to the requested restriction, we will abide by it, except in emergency circumstances when the information is needed for your treatment. In certain cases, we may deny your request for a restriction. You will have the right to request, in writing, that we restrict communication to your health plan regarding a specific treatment or service that you, or someone on your behalf, has paid for in full, out-of-pocket. We are not permitted to deny this specific type of requested restriction.

You may have the right to request an amendment to your protected health information

This means you may request an amendment of your PHI for as long as we maintain this information. In certain cases, we may deny your request.

You have the right to request a disclosure accountability

This means that you may request a listing of disclosures that we have made, of your PHI, to entities or persons outside of our office.

You have the right to receive a privacy breach notice

You have the right to receive written notification if the practice discovers a breach of your unsecured PHI, and determines through a risk assessment that notification is required. If you have questions regarding your privacy rights, please feel free to contact our Privacy Manager. Contact information is provided on the following page under Privacy Complaints.

How We May Use or Disclose Protected Health Information

Following are examples of uses and disclosures of your protected health information that we are permitted to make. These examples are not meant to be exhaustive, but to describe possible types of uses and disclosures.

Treatment

We may use and disclose your PHI to provide, coordinate, or manage your healthcare and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your healthcare with a third party that is involved in your care and treatment. For example, we would disclose your PHI, as necessary, to a pharmacy that would fill your prescriptions. We will also disclose PHI to other Healthcare Providers who may be involved in your care and treatment.

Special Notices

We may use or disclose your PHI, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We may contact you by phone or other means to provide results from exams or tests and to provide information that describes or recommends treatment alternatives regarding your care. Also, we may contact you to provide information about health-related benefits and services offered by our office, for fund-raising activities, or with respect to a group health plan, to disclose information to the health plan sponsor. You will have the right to opt out of such special notices, and each such notice will include instructions for opting out.

Payment

Your PHI will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your healthcare services. This may include certain activities that your health insurance plan may undertake before it approves or pays for the healthcare services we recommend for you such as; making a determination of eligibility or coverage for insurance benefits.

Healthcare Operations

We may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI in order to support the business activities of our practice. This includes, but is not limited to business planning and development, quality assessment and improvement, medical review, legal services, auditing functions and patient safety activities.

Health Information Organization

The practice may elect to use a health information organization, or other such organization to facilitate the electronic exchange of information for the purposes of treatment, payment, or healthcare operations.

To Others Involved In Your Healthcare

Unless you object, we may disclose to a member of your family, a relative, a close friend or any other person, that you identify, your PHI that directly relates to that person's involvement in your healthcare. If you are unable to agree or object to such a disclosure, we may disclose such information as necessary if we determine that it is in your best interest based on our professional judgment. We may use or disclose PHI to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative or any other person that is responsible for your care, of your general condition or death. If you are not present or able to agree or object to the use or disclosure of the PHI, then your healthcare provider may, using professional judgment, determine whether the disclosure is in your best interest. In this case, only the PHI that is necessary will be disclosed.

Other Permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures

We are also permitted to use or disclose your PHI without your written authorization for the following purposes: as required by law; for public health activities; health oversight activities; in cases of abuse or neglect; to comply with Food and Drug Administration requirements; research purposes; legal proceedings; law enforcement purposes; coroners; funeral directors; organ donation; criminal activity; military activity; national security; worker's compensation; when an inmate in a correctional facility; and if requested by the Department of Health and Human Services in order to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of the Privacy Rule.

Privacy Complaints

You have the right to complain to us, or directly to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated by us. You may file a complaint with us by notifying the Privacy Manager at:

We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
